

I.R.E. is a no profit association and it works in the field of cultural and environmental activities. In particular it promotes and realizes social and cultural activities, both in Italy and in foreign countries, related to the promotion and the study of scientific, technical, economic, legislative about blasting techniques, security and other similar sector.

Goals:

- to disseminate the knowledge about positive and negative aspects of blasting techniques by training courses, newspaper, magazines, books, radio, television, and internet;
- to promote the interdisciplinary scientific research for example in engineering, mining, security, forensic and crisis;
- to realise professional training courses in every sector interested in;

- to organize meeting, convention and congress, debates and seminars, demonstration in order to develop and promote studies and researches to achieve our owns goals;
- to promote the edition of books, periodical publications and advertisings;
- to collaborate joining programs and projects of public and private institutions for the reinforcement of security measures.